Question 1.

Read the passage given below. (1 x 10 = 10)

(1) Mountains have always been held in great awe by mankind. They have been a challenge to humankind. Those brave among us have always wanted to conquer them. You see, the more incredible the mountains, the greater the thrill - a challenge to the bravery of the human race.

Climbing mountains is an experience that is hard to put into words. You are in a beautiful environment and, when you reach the top, you feel incredible. But you also have to climb down, which is when most accidents happen - people are tired, it gets dark, it's harder. So, mountain climbing is undoubtedly one of the most popular adventure sports along with being challenging and risky for the climber.

(2) Without any perceived risk, there can't be a feeling that any significant challenge has been surmounted. Fair, but we have to bear in mind that mountaineering is not a sport that can be embraced without preparation. The enthusiasts must develop in themselves the spirit of adventure, willingness to undertake hardships and risks, extraordinary powers of perseverance, endurance, and keenness of purpose before climbing a mountain. They should also know how to handle the mountaineering equipment.

Then comes the penance of the rigorous training. This could very well be the lifeline up there. It helps inculcate and hone survival instincts that allow the climber to negotiate perilous situations. There are numerous institutes in India and abroad that offer such training.

(3) Mountain climbers are unanimous in agreeing that the unpredictable weather is what they fear the most. There may be sunshine one moment and a snowstorm the other. At higher altitudes, snow is a regular feature and being decisive about setting up camps or proceeding further is crucial.

The icy sheets after ice storms make walking treacherous, while the powdery snow makes a mountaineer sink deep into the snow. Up there, where the intention is to embrace Nature's wonder, one realises that it cannot be done without facing its formidable glory. A true mountaineer may challenge the mountain, yet is always respectful to the powerful forces of nature.

(4) Summiting mountains carries its own health risks such as oxygen and altitude sickness problems, frost bites, swelling of hands and feet, fluid collection in brain or lungs and exhaustion. Yet, the gratification mountaineers feel from mastering something that is so frightening, urges them to undertake these endeavours.

We may think that the mountaineers are fearless, experts say, "Not at all. It's fear that keeps them so intrigued with such arduous journeys." Impulse and brazenness can be deadly foes. In the words of the Indian mountaineer, Bachendri Pal, "The biggest risk... is to not to take the risk at all. Remember that."..

Subject: Need for Promoting Healthy Eating Routines Dear Madam,

This is with reference to posters bearing the message of 'crash diet' being posted around our school premises. Such posters impact the youngsters negatively and can be hazardous for their self-esteem.

I would like to propose the idea of implementing 'Wholesome Lunch Month' for all school students to counter the implications of such misleading advertisements. This initiative will surely encourage all students to bring nutritious and healthy lunch daily and develop healthy eating routines. To ensure that this project gains strength, schools may organize puppet shows, street plays, Ted Talks (by Nutritionist/ Psychologist), encompassing the theme, to foster healthy eating routines and a positive body image.

I hope that the publishing of my letter in the columns of your renowned Daily, helps spread awareness and promotes a healthy lifestyle among students.

Subject: Seeking Recommendation for 'Serving Citizens' Award' Nominations.

Dear Sir

This is with reference to the empathetic social service done by Miss Jiya, Mas Adwait and Master Pranit (residents of our complex), in rescuing and rehabilitating a few old beggars from our neighbourhood. These students ensured that the beggars were rehabilitated at 'Seva Sadan'- an NGO which takes care of the needy of our city.

This selfless initiative carried out with dedication and responsibility, deserves due recognition. I, therefore, request you to issue a letter of recommendation for these students to be nominated for 'Serving Citizens' Award' organised by the local Municipal Corporation.

I would also like to submit that the RWA set up a special committee that looks into such acts in the future. This would aid dedicated attention and appropriate screening of nominations. Arrangement of academic sponsorships for such children would also be an encouraging gesture.

I entreat you address this at your earliest convenience and issue the recommendation letters.

Yours sincerely

Read the following excerpt from an online post of a website on educational practices. Kids who appreciate how much effort, time and care goes into growing food will understand how important farmers are, and why it's important to take care of our Earth. In the world of today, gardening needs to be given more importance than sports, music and dance in all schools because it creates environmental stewards and outdoor learning laboratories that help the child and community for years to come.

Answer:

In Favour

The given information illustrates the options Gurmeet would weigh in order to take the right decision about her admission in a public-funded engineering college. With availability of strong curriculum, quality faculty and vibrant Activity Clubs, she will be assured of an enriching educational journey.

Though hostel facility is unavailable, she may take up accommodation in the suburbs or choose to travel daily from her village. Good opportunities of practice-based research, partnership with professional companies and international students exchange program will enhance her professional and interpersonal skills.

Hard work, responsible behaviour and prudent decision-making could help Gurmeet thrive in the college even though it has a rigid and conventional culture. The strengths and opportunities work in favour of Gurmeet. Taking this opportunity will allow her to mend the incorrect public perception towards public-funded colleges and students' outlook towards technical subjects. (129 words)

In Against:

The given information indicates Gurmeet's dilemma about seeking admission in a public-funded college. Though equipped with a strong curriculum, engaging activity clubs and an able faculty, the college lacks diversity and good conduct among the students, giving rise to concerns of safe environment for a novice like Gurmeet.

Underutilization of IT services will be further detrimental to the progress of Gurmeet’s educational journey and add to extra costs related to research work. If she does not qualify for a complete or partial scholarship, arrangement of own accommodation and additional expense of students exchange programme will increase her expenditure, too. Such a college environment may dampen her endeavouring spirit. The weakness and threats outweigh the strengths, in case of Gurmeet So, it is recommended that Gurmeet does not apply for admission to the said college. (139 words)

Answer:

In Favour:

In the world of today, gardening needs to be given more importance than sports, music and dance in all schools. While sports, music and dance contribute towards personal growth, the current times mandate attention towards an issue that is global-nature and natural processes.

With growing food wastage in many homes today and the urban young believing that vegetables are grown, harvested at the super markets, the efforts of the farmers are discredited. Gardening at school will open a world of first hand learning experiences of sowing, watering and harvesting processes.

Waiting for the saplings to grow will inculcate sensitivity, patience, empathy, gratitude and value for one’s hard work. They will feel accountable for their piece of Mother Earth, resulting in making them efficient and enterprising environmental stewards. Unlike sports, music or dance, gardening goes beyond just enjoyment to create aware and responsible citizens of the future. (148 words)

In against:

Gardening, certainly, should not be given precedence over sports, music and dance in all schools.

Gardening at school requires good planning with hands-on guidance and continued supervision by the teachers. Students tend to lose interest due to the slow and natural growth progress of plants as well as the investment of continuous hard work. Small targets or goals would be missing whereas the danger of destruction of their work due to rains, intrusion of grazing animals or a pest attack is like to set in a feeling of defeat.

It may be noted that sports, music and dance are uplifting activities which display faster results, are enjoyable and inculcate team spirit, collaboration and confidence. Unlike gardening, setbacks in these activities can be addressed with some sense of personal control These activities help students express and de-stress successfully. So, maintaining their due importance in the school’s co-curriculum is imperative. (148 words)

“Hey, a tea garden!” Rajvir cried excitedly. Pranjol, who had been born and brought up on a plantation, didn’t share Rajvir’s excitement.

“Oh, this is tea country now,” he said. “Assam has the largest concentration of plantations in the world. You will see enough gardens to last you a lifetime!”

	Possible experience of her bus ride ( 2 valid points) (1m)
	Expression:
	Connection between the experience (0.5m)
	Usage of words like 'adventure', 'facination' etc. (0.5m)
	0.5 will be deducted for spelling/ grammatical mistakes

Answer:

Agree:

A bus ride seemed like a fascinating means of recreation and adventure-unlike cities and bigger towns

She could travel alone safely unfortunately, not recommended in larger townships or cities

There was only one bus that Valli observed several times – cities have varied means of transport that might seem more adventurous

Disagree:

Fascination for riding a bus or an automobile can exist in children of Valli's age even in big cities.

Travelling unnoticed is easier in large cities than in small towns or villages due to familiarity

Cities would offer more opportunities for a bus ride due to availability and frequency of several buses on the same route.

Explanation:

I agree that Valli's first bus ride was possible only because she lives in the village as has she been in a city, full of multiple buses travelling at different times through different routes, she would have never been able to plan a soLo trip. It was the only bus in her village and this made it easier for her to escape alone.

	Expression: (1m)

Organise answer effectively (0.5m)

Usage of words like 'fictitious', 'narrative' etc. (0.5m)

0.5m will be deducted for spelling/ grammatical mistakes

Answer:

Fable is fictitious narrative usually with animals, birds etc as characters and shares a strong message whereas a ballad is narrative verse that can be silly or heroic.

The Tale of Custard the Dragon includes animals, is surely fictitious and shares a meaningful message. Hence, better qualifies as a fable.

Explanation: The Tale of Custard the Dragon' is more of a fable than a ballad because a fable is one that has animals in it. giving a crucial message while a ballad is a narrative that reflects heroism or stupidity. The poem is more of a message-giving. It promotes 'to not to judge a book by its cover' through Custard, the dragon.

Owners-He understood the owner (Mrs. Pumphrey) well and never spoke any harsh and advising words on the seriously obese dog- knowing fully well that she was responsible for this condition.

Explanation: It is true that Dr. Herriot knew both his patients and their owners pretty well. When he saw Tricki, he knew that he had a serious problem and immediately needs to control his overweight. On the other hand, he also knew that Tricki's owner Mrs. Pumphrey would not be able to cut her pet's diet short or make him exercise as she loved him.

2. The writer, perhaps, wanted to give a strong message that the brain is what counts more than brawn/ muscle power brain power is far more potent/ effective than any other type of power muscle/arms etc.

Ausable was short and fat but was really intelligent and quick with his wits.

Gets to play/go for walks

Enjoys meals and company of the owner-exists peacefully in the company of his owner

Tiger

Unhappy in captivity- blames humans for caging him-wished they'd know the value of peaceful co-existence

Longing to be free and in natural habitat-perhaps wouldn't wish to be tamed as a pet

Gets disturbed by the human activity

Explanation: Tiger: Thanks for visiting me, though I don't usually like visitors. Mijbil: Oh? I would love visitors, I think. Tiger: But I don't. You see, I have always been there in the wild. Cage is not where I belong.

Mijbil: Is your owner not as good as mine? Well, mine takes me out for meals, walks, etc. I really enjoy his peaceful company.

Tiger: My owners do not even feed me on time. Keep me in captivity and use me to attract visitors that disturb me all the time. I like no man.

Mijbil: I hope you find peace in your life soon my friend.

Tiger: That will only happen the day I will be free from this cage.

If you had to use the message of the given quote from the Buddha's sermon (The Sermon at Benares) to help the boy cope with the loss of his ball and what it signifies (The Ball Poem), what would you include in your advice?

Also, evaluate why it might be difficult for him to understand the notion. [6]

Total Marks	Breakdown (As per CBSE Marking Scheme)
3m(SA)	Learnings (2 points) in reference to Buddha's Quote (2m)
	Inferences (2 points) from learnings, on how the boy can cope with the loss (1m)
	Atleast 3 reasons on why the boy cannot understand the notion (3m)
	Keywords: Young, requires time, disheartened

Answer:

The learning from the referenced quote of Buddha -

the loss of irreplaceable things brings grief and sorrows.

learning to stay calm and understanding the perishable/ mortal nature of things helps in living life normally and forgetting loss

To help the boy cope with the loss-that loss is an important part of life

- important to learn from experience -adapt and move on.

Difficult for the boy to understand the notion-

The boy is too young to understand the depth of these words-is alone in his loss-has no one to explain and must learn from his experience painstakingly-requires time to cope-easy to feel disheartened at that age.

Explanation: The message from The Sermon at Benares' that I would include in my advice to the boy who lost his ball in The Ball Poem' would be that whining or lamenting over the loss of an irreplaceable thing will only bring gloom and despair into the life of an already grieving person. Acceptance of the loss is the only thing that can diminish the feeling of sorrow from heart and bring contentment.

However, for the boy who lost his prized possession as a ball, it would be so difficult to understand these lessons because of his young age. The boy is quite young and immature. He can't understand these mature meanings of life. He is a child who lost his lovely ball and no other ball can bring his memories attached to the lost ball back.

Question 11.

Answer ANY ONE of the following in about 100-120 words.

Fiction writers prefer creating grey characters rather than black and white. Analyse this in detail, with reference to both the characters of 'The Thief's Story'.

Total Marks	Breakdown (As per CBSE Marking Scheme)
3m(SA)	Introduction (1m) Explain the reference of grey/ black/white w.r.t characters qualities Character Sketch (4m) Talk about Character 1 (3-4 points) (2m) Talk about Character 2 (3-4 points) (2m) Focus on good and bad traits of characters Concluding statement (1m) Talk about what those events led to, which defied the code.

Answer:

Introductory

Both characters in the story-neither completely black (negative) or white (ideal)-have redeeming qualities as well as those that need improvement- story reveals both their personas as grey.

Hari Singh:

Thief-artful – too smart for his age – fooled his victims and police -Wasn't ashamed in lying and stealing - made no efforts to confess that he had given in to the temptation of stealing the notes However,

Changed due to love, affection and Anil's trust

The character of Hari Singh-not a flat character who is either black or white.

Anil:

While we can admire Anil for his qualities -helpful and simple -easily trusting -forgave the thief -never uttered a word despite knowledge of the theft However,

Not perfect-casual about money -ignored Hari Singh's pilfering The character of Hari Singh-not a flat character who is either black or white.

Conclusion-Grey characters present a challenge to the readers, allow a sense of unpredictability and present a moral challenge. Hari Singh and Anil are created as grey characters.

Explanation: In 'The Thief's Story' the writer created both the characters of Hari Singh and Anil as grey characters. None of them were completely black (negative) or white (positive). Hari Singh was portrayed as a grey character as he initially wanted to rob Anil, tried stealing his money but later, succumbed to Anil's goodness and returns to him.

On the other hand, Anil was also a grey character as having a lot of great qualities in him like being helpful, trusting, kind, etc., he was a spendthrift, not serious about earning money, ignored Hari's casual money stealing, etc. The reason for portraying grey characters is to create a sense of unpredictability of the characters and a lesson to learn for the readers.

The protagonist, Horace Danby

The Lady in red

This resulted in Horace Danby going to prison for the first time in his life-he felt betrayed.
